Collaborative for Higher Education in Information Assurance and Security
Memorandum of Understanding
California State University, Sacramento and Sierra College

This MOU is meant to further define areas of collaboration between California State University, Sacramento and Sierra College. Under the auspice of the Collaborative, representatives and faculty from the two parties will meet regularly to resolve issues and develop innovative initiatives related to higher education, academic, and career development for students. This MOU specifically deals with collaboration in Information Assurance and Security.

California State University, Sacramento and Sierra College are presently collaborating on the following initiatives in Information Assurance and Security:

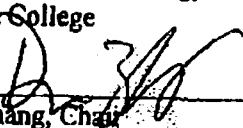

1. The Collaborative will work to develop ways to allow a Sierra College student who has an AA degree in IA or has completed relevant courses in IA, to waive certain approved courses in our IA minor program if the student wants to pursue a Minor program in IA.
2. California State University, Sacramento will work with Sierra College to help map their IA course to CNSS 4011 standards.
3. California State University, Sacramento and Sierra College will work to find ways to collaborate in joint grant proposals in IA. An example is NSF ATE grants.
